LARGEST CITY CIRCULATION.

THE DRIFTING BOAT.

It had floated away from the beach and bay,
Out of sight of tower and town,
An empty and battered boat,
The morning sun on the water wide,
And the night fell cold and dark, Yet ever on with wind and tide Drifted that battered boat.

The sail had passed from its broken mast,
And the pointed prow was dim;
The salt sea-weed clung round its bows,
Which had been so sharp and trim.
Where were the merry water and trees,
Who had come with it aloft,
We never hear of it, but the wide sea Hath lives like that drifting boat.

Life's a race in early storm's havior, Anchor and sail and oar,
And never, except on Lethe's shore, Can come to moorings more;
Out of what's better, true these days,
The hope and the heart have gone,
Good ships go down in stormy seas, But these empty boats drift on.

They had hearts to sail the wind's eye once;
They had hearts to reef and steer,
With a strength that would not stop to chance,
And a faith that knew no fear, But the years were long and the storms were
And the rainbow flag was faded, And they that launched for the skies have But the drift-wood of the world.

SHAD fishing has commenced on the Savannah.

The oldest book extant published in America is now in possession of General J. Phelps, of Brattleboro, Vermont. It is a dictionary of the Aztec language, and was printed in the City of Mexico in 1571.

T. R. O'CONNOR, a school teacher in Richfield, Minn., was put off the cars, on Monday, for failing to pay the extra ten cents exacted for not procuring a ticket at the office, and was frozen to death.

The Delaware Gazette states that there is a fine prospect for a handsome yield of fruit the coming season in Delaware, and the peach growers are gratified with the improved facilities for reaching a market.

BIRMINGHAM, in England, is estimated to have 20,000 children entirely unpro-vided with educational facilities; and it is proposed to erect and open fifty new schools, which, however, will only accommodate a small proportion of them.

HERRINGS are plenty in Scotland. The fishermen at Greenock are taking so many herrings that they are sold for three-pence the basket, and a basket holds one hundred and fifty or more.
It was thought that they would soon sell for a penny a hundred.

DR. BELLWORTH doesn't like the circumlocation at the Berlin restaurants. He writes that in that city one man receives an order in the restaurants, another carries it, a third transfers it, a fourth executes it, a fifth receives the thing executed, and a sixth makes it over to the original orderer. It takes twenty minutes to get a chop which would be before you in five minutes in an American eating house.

The Paris Figaro ought to be well edited, at least at the salaries it pays for that labor. It pays five editors $4800 each, one $4000, six others $2400 each, two $1600 each, and four more of $1200 each. These salaries aggregate $50,560 annually, and besides them the theoretical critic receives fifteen cents a line for his services, and if any of the stuff furnish tales for the "feuilleton," they are paid extra, at the rate of five cents a line.

The Fall of Rents in Nashville.
The revolution which has followed upon the collapse of the exorbitant system of rents so long upheld in this city, is truly startling. Tenants now command business houses for which landlords dictated all sorts of terms four years ago, and some of the best business stands in Nashville are now empty and deserted, not so much as even commanding a solitary office—no, not even a paltry hundred dollars. In many instances rents on large residences are as boarding houses have fallen several hundred dollars. Houses with from three to six rooms hold their own better, but even so to them, rents are much more moderate than formerly.—Nashville Union.

An official investigation is to be had of the affairs of the New York City national banks. Charges have been made of violation of section 29 of the national currency act in loaning upon fancy stocks and other uncertain securities amounts largely in excess of the limit allowed by law to any one firm or person. How much foundation there may be for these complaints is not known, but the controller of the currency has promptly taken the matter in hand, and directed the bank examiners to inquire into these alleged violations with a view to enforce the law if the facts revealed require such action. The defalcation of Lever's has excited some alarm among capitalists, and has probably led to the investigation.—Newark Advertiser.

Ex-Lieutenant Governor George Hall, of Sandisfield, Massachusetts, died at his residence there a few days ago, at the age of eighty years, lacking one day.
Mr. Hall was a native of Farmington, Connecticut, but became a resident of Sandisfield early. For nearly half a century he was postmaster, and was held in high esteem by his townsmen. He was Lieutenant Governor from 1836 to 1843.

In the German Pilgrim Lodge of Free Masons, in New York City, one evening last week, three dwarfs received the degree of Entered Apprentices. Their names are: Jean Pott, aged thirty-three; Bohemian; Jean Pisto, aged thirty-two, an Austrian; and Kio Joesai, a Hungarian. They are on exhibition at the German Theater, in the Bowery.

Joshua Cook, of Buffalo, has entered a suit against "Blind Tom," the pianist, and his agent and door-keeper, at St.
James' Hall, for the forcible ejection of one George Dower, a negro barber, and his wife, from one of Blind Tom's entertainments, after they had purchased tickets of admission.

Pierre Carme, the billiard player, is to try an extraordinary fancy shot in Boston, coming from a ball on the table to a ball on a bystander's head.

Madame De la Grange is the wife of a young Greek nobleman with plenty of money, and only signs because she likes it.
